National Museum of African American History & Culture

The National Museum of African American History and Culture is the only national museum devoted exclusively to the documentation of African American life, history, and culture. To date, the Museum has collected more than 36,000 artifacts.

We are looking in to securing free, group passes for reunion attendees for Friday, August 16th for entry at 11:00 a.m. The museum's collection is comprehensive and requires several hours (and in most cases multiple trips) to absorb it all. The museum hours are 10:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., so we feel trying to secure entry earlier in the day will give everyone the best chance to see as much of the museum as they can.

If you are interested in attending as part of the group, please email info@doughertyreunion.com with the full names of the people you want passes for. After the reunion registration period is over (deadline is July 15, 2019), we will alert people who have registered to the status of group passes. You can visit the museum's website to secure free passes on your own. Website: <https://nmaahc.si.edu/>
